Alcoholic beverage is strictly prohibited from being brought into the Las Vegas Convention Center. In order to obtain authorization from ARAMARK to distribute any food or beverage item, one of the following conditions must exist:

1. The party interested in distributing food or beverage must be the manufacturer of said product and is exhibiting at a food and beverage or related industry show. The interested party must only distribute SAMPLE sizes (two ounces or less) of his/her product and cannot participate in cash sales of said product during the show. Any party that is sampling must also meet all Southern Nevada Health District requirements regarding hand washing and sanitation equipment as well as hot and cold food holding.

OR

2. The party interested in distributing food or beverage must pay a fee to ARAMARK in order for ARAMARK to waive its right to exclusivity under the Las Vegas Convention Center Lease Agreement. The waiver fee will be no less than 75% of said full retail menu price plus administrative fee. Waiver fees of less than 75% of full retail menu price plus administrative fee can be negotiated ONLY in cases where a large volume of product is involved, but the final waiver fee will be up to the discretion of the ARAMARK Sales Department.

If a party brings unauthorized food or beverage into the Las Vegas Convention Center and does not subsequently meet one of the conditions listed above, the party must immediately remove the unauthorized items from their exhibit or meeting space. If this is not possible, ARAMARK will pick up the product from the party's exhibit or meeting space and hold it in storage until after the close of the event.
