Dear Beer, Wine or Spirits Sampling Exhibitors,

Aramark is requiring that any company participating in the International Hospitality Week Convention & Trade Show who will be serving Beer, Wine or Spirits samples, be either ServSafe™, TAM or TIPS certified or hire one of their bartenders at $165 per day. In an effort to offer an alternative, we have partnered with the Nevada Restaurant Association to offer two different ServSafe Alcohol™ Training classes to train you and your employees. You are only required to attend one of the classes. Once completed, your card will be issued on Tuesday, March 13, 2012 before the show opens. Your certificate will be valid for four years. We recommend that all your employees attend the training. Please see details below.
